Now the good news

As you must have noticed the price went down this year. Well where did the extra money come from? As Arnie promised when we started the 50/50 raffle, we would share the proceeds with you guys.

So with a little planning (Arnie's stingy.) He was able to apply the kitty to the ticket price.

Now let's get serious.

At the bottom of the announcements was the statement:

"We are looking for a couple individuals to continue planning the annual picnic"

For the last 9 years Arnie and I have toiled on your behalf, to try and provide a time and place for our membership to get together and socialize.

It is time for new blood in the planning. This is the last picnic Arnie and I will be hosting. We have enjoyed all the years of your fine company. Thank you for all your support.

Arnie and I will help the new team "get their feet wet." for 2015.

If no one steps up to the plate, then this will be the last Pioneer's Picnic.
